Leadplane Training Course
Leadplane Training Course

Target Descriptions
Leadplane Training Course

Target Descriptions

Make everything as simple as possible….
But not simpler.
Leadplane Training Course

Ground Perspective
Leadplane Training Course

Aerial Perspective
Leadplane Training Course

Establish fire anatomy early

And

Reestablish it when conditions change.
Leadplane Training Course

Heal
Left Flank
Right Flank
Left Shoulder
Right Shoulder
Head
Finger
Spot Fire
Leadplane Training Course

Long Range

Cardinal Directions.

GPS Coordinates.
Leadplane Training Course

Long Range

“Come to the west side of the fire.”
“Let me know when your ready to copy the lat long.”
Leadplane Training Course

Medium Range

Fire Anatomy.

Fire Orientation.
Leadplane Training Course

“We are working the southern fire.”

“Meet me on the right shoulder, the heel is in the drainage.”
Leadplane Training Course

Short Range

Clock Orientation.

Fire Anatomy.
Leadplane Training Course

Use of Tactical Objectives

“We are trying to keep the right flank from progressing into the drainage.”
Leadplane Training Course

Use of Tactical Objectives

“Anchor at the heel and work up the right flank.”
Use of Tactical Objectives

“We are doing point protection around the structures at the heel.”
Leadplane Training Course

Use of Tactical Objectives

“The retardant will be indirect on the ridge uphill of the left flank.”
Leadplane Training Course

Use of Descriptive Terminology

“Start prior to the flare upon the right flank.”
Leadplane Training Course

Use of Descriptive Terminology

“The start point will be the rocky knob mid way up the right flank.”
Leadplane Training Course

Use of Descriptive Terminology

“They want the retardant on the green side of the road.”
Leadplane Training Course

Use of Descriptive Terminology

“Start prior to the black smoke on the right flank.”
Leadplane Training Course

Failure to Utilize Fire Anatomy

“Meet me on the southern flank.”
Leadplane Training Course

Failure to Utilize Fire Anatomy

Vs
Leadplane Training Course

Failure to Utilize Fire Anatomy

“The heel of the fire is closest to the road. Meet me on the left shoulder.”
Target Descriptions

Start with an obvious landmark so that the sender and receiver can have the same starting point.

Deliver finer details in short communications so that the receiver can communicate that they understand.
Leadplane Training Course

Target Descriptions

Practice radio discipline.
Think about what you want to say before transmitting.
Leadplane Training Course

Target Descriptions

Practice brevity.

It takes practice to learn how to be brief over the radio.
Leadplane Training Course

Target Description Key Points

Use Fire Anatomy
Leadplane Training Course

Target Description Key Points

Use Fire Anatomy
Start Big and Progress Towards Finer Details
Target Description Key Points

Use Fire Anatomy
Start Big and Progress Towards Finer Details
Practice Radio Discipline
Leadplane Training Course

Target Description Key Points

Use Fire Anatomy
Start Big and Progress Towards Finer Details
Practice Radio Discipline
Practice Brevity