

D-110, Expanded Dispatch Recorder (Instructor-Led Training)

Summary of Changes – 2023

Overall Course Format Changes

- Course duration of 20 hours changed to 24 hours, to allow time for simulation of expanded dispatch activities.
- Course objectives and unit objectives have been updated.
- Course composition changed from 3 units (with sub-lessons) to 9 units.
- Interagency Resource Ordering Capability (IROC) information has replaced Resource ordering and Status System (ROSS) throughout the course.

2007 Certified Version	2023 Revised Version
Introduction	Introduction, Arrival, and Check-in
Unit 1: Expanded Dispatch Organization	Unit 1: Expanded Dispatch Organization
Unit 2: Resource Ordering and Statusing	Unit 2: Communications and Working Relationships
Unit 3: Communications and Working Relationships	Unit 3: Electronic Resource Tracking System (IROC)
	Unit 4: Creating a Resource Request, Pending Request, Resource Status, and Edit Request
	Unit 5: Filling and Placing a Request, DPL, Mobilizing, and Travel/Travel Procedures
	Unit 6: Request Status, Support, and Subordinate Requests
	Unit 7: IROC Supplies
	Unit 8: Supplemental Forms and Manual Resource Ordering
	Unit 9: Demobilization
	Final Scenario and Exam
	After Action Review and Closeout

Course Materials

- Instructor Guide and presentation material available for download via NWCWG Training Course Catalog.
- Student Workbook replaced by Expanded Dispatch Job Aid, available for download from NIFC Logistics website.
- Course materials for 2007 version have been removed from NWCWG NFES Catalog – Part 2: Publications (PMS 449-2).
- NWCWG Training Course Catalog: <https://www.nwcg.gov/publications/training-courses/d-110>.

SMEs provided by the Dispatch Position & Curriculum Management Subcommittee (DPMS) included:

- Hilary Shook
- Amber Sunderland
- Amy Harpole
- April Cook
- Edward Bradley

Approved by:

1. Course Steward (Dispatch Position & Curriculum Management Subcommittee)
2. Parent Committee (National Coordination System Committee)
3. Incident & Position Standards Committee